thomas h ogden is the winner of the 2004 international journal of psychoanalysis award for the most important paper of the year and the 2010 haskell norman prize an international award for outstanding achievement as a psychoanalytic clinician teacher and theoretician thomas ogden is internationally recognized as one of the most creative analytic thinkers writing today in this book he brings his original analytic ideas to life by means of his own method of closely reading major analytic works he reads watershed papers in a way that does not simply cast new and discerning light on the works he is discussing but introduces his own thinking regarding the ideas being discussed in the texts ogden offers expanded understandings of some of the most fundamental concepts constituting psychoanalytic theory and practice he does so by finding in each of the articles he discusses much that the author knew but did not know that he or she knew an example of this is how freud in his conception of the unconscious workings of mourning and melancholia was providing the foundation of a theory of unconscious internal object relations ogden goes on to provide further re readings of classic material from the following key contributors to contemporary psychoanalysis w r d fairbairn donald winnicott wilfred bion hans loewald harold searles this book is not simply a book of readings it is a book about reading about how to read in a way that readers actively rewrite what they are reading and in so doing makes the ideas truly their own the concepts that ogden develops in his readings provide a significant step in the reader s expansion of his or her understanding of many of the ideas that lie at the cutting edge of contemporary psychoanalysis it will be of particular interest to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists who use a psychodynamic approach as well as professionals and academics with an interest in contemporary psychoanalysis according to the end of millennium arts and entertainment television network survey the single most influential person of the last thousand years was johann gutenberg the inventor of the printing press the revolutionary advent of moveable metal type made possible the diffusion of books to people around the world profoundly influencing the lives of many famous historical figures thereafter this book attempts to demonstrate the role that reading has played throughout the course of history it documents the lives of nine individuals of outstanding achievement whose efforts were molded by the books they read the subjects are presented in chronological order according to birth respective chapters contain brief biographies of the subjects and discuss the ways in which each used books as a principal aid in the development of his or her exceptional talents subjects include benjamin franklin who was in 1724 an active connoisseur in the rapidly growing printing trade thomas jefferson abraham lincoln frederick douglass susan b anthony booker t washington pearl s buck louis l amour and nelson mandela the book maintains that while these historical figures represent a wide range of talents and influences to each is attributed invaluable contributions to society each was a dedicated reader inspired to greatness by the power of the written word i m just the messenger please don t kill me don t hate me because i m psychic everybody else already does my name s clair ivers and these days my gift seems more like a booby prize it all started when this crazy woman tried to bribe me into skewing a reading to warm her future sister in law s cold feet then the prospective sister in law threatened to kill herself at the altar if i didn t give her a phony reading saying she should break off the engagement oh and did i mention she ran out leaving her three carat rock of a ring right there on my table so what s an honest woman to do find the man who belongs to the ring of course and boy have i found him the minute i lay eyes on jack heron i know he s the one for me that is the problem is making him realize it once he finds out that i may be responsible for the flight of his fiancée at least his grandmother likes me of course she thinks i m someone else and then there s the best man who keeps calling me for dates and stock tips between the people who think i m someone else the people who wish i were and the people who just want a bead on the winning powerball numbers i m seriously considering packing in my deck for good but not until i throw caution to the wind and make a play for my very own jack of hearts the characters in henderson s successful tourmaline return in this suspense thriller set in eastern asia military strategy romance and faith under persecution all weave an unforgettable tale of adventure and intrigue smith linguistics u of texas presents a unified theory of aspect within universal grammar she provides an unusual combination of syntactic semantic and pragmatic approaches to a single domain and gives detailed linguistic analyses of the very different aspect systems in english french mandarin chinese navajo and russian after presenting her evidence she develops a formal semantic treatment in the framework of discourse representation theory with an explicit procedure for computing aspect meaning from syntactical surface structure among her innovations are a principled account of the interaction between viewpoint and situation type a level of pragmatic analysis at which contrastive and inferred meanings are stated and a default analysis of sentences that are neither perfective nor imperfective in viewpoint no date is noted for the first edition but the second incorporates further developments of the two component theory such as new treatments of boundedness and dynamism and a general account of aspect shifts annotation copyrighted by book news inc portland or
